

Pediatric Ethics Conference Montreal Children's Hospital Annual

First, do no harm: An exploration of ethical considerations in pediatric end-of-life care.

AGENDA

When: May 7
Time:
13:00-16:30
Where:
B02-9290

Free!

No Pre-Registration

Certificate of Attendance

13:00	Welcome
13:15-14:00	A Life Worth Living? Stephen Liben, MD Professor of Pediatrics, McGill University Director, Pediatric Palliative Care Program
14:00-14:45	Ethical reflections around end-of-life decision making in adolescence Majorie Vadnais, MD CHU Sainte-Justine Département de psychiatrie Service de consultation-liaison Membre de l'unité d'éthique clinique
14:45-15:00	Break
15:00-15:45	MAID and the Paediatric Setting: Recent, Current and Forward Looking Considerations Randi Zlotnik Shaul JD, LLM, PhD Director, Bioethics Department The Hospital for Sick Children Associate Professor, Dept. of Paediatrics Joint Centre for Bioethics, University of Toronto
15:45-16:15	Panel discussion – Oh the times, they are a changin' : A look at the evolution of pediatric best interests and thoughts for the future.
16:15	Wrap up

May 8, 2019 at 8h: Ethics Grand Rounds

RI Amphitheatre

If Mature Minors were to be eligible for Medical Assistance in Dying:
An ethical lens on possible benefits, risks and safeguards.

By: Dawn Davies MD, Pediatrician, Roger Neilson House,
Palliative Care Physician, CHEO